SILVER IN THE SENATE.

Special to the Indiapapolis Journal. WASHINGTON, May 28 .- Encouraged by the vote yesterday by which the Senate refused to refer his silver resolutions, Mr. Morgan to-day incited Mr. Stewart, of Nevada, to move to proceed to the consideration of his free-coinage bill. This motion, in a Senate barely two-thirds full -some Senators avoiding a vote and others being paired-was carried, nine Republicans, seventeen Democrats and two Farmers' Alliance men voting in its favor. The Senate has now apparently entered upon a limitless debate of silver free comage.

Senator Hill again dodged the free-coinage question. He sat in his seat and heard all the speaking. When the vote was about to be taken he got up and deliberately walked off the floor of the chamber and strolled in the corridors within a few feet of his seat. He laughed at those who asked him to vote. He is determined he will deceive his party and will not go on record on the silver issue. His action is generally condemned by Democrats.

When the Senate convened to-day Mr. Morgan resumed his argument on the resolutions that provoked Senator Sherman yesterday. Mr. Morgan denied that his object was to infinence political conventions. He wanted legislation; and, hopeless as that seemed now, if the Senators who indicated their position yesterday by their votes against referring the resolution would adhere steadily and courageously to their convictions, his judgment was that, before the close of Congress, that vexed question would have passed entirely out of consideration and the people would have their way. Coming again to the House and the likelihood of a presidential veto of a free-silver bill, Mr. Morgan said: "We have had other Presidents to veto silver bills, and what has become of them? There is a very prominent gentleman now before the country whom every Demo-erat honestly loves and reveres for his manly integrity, his great, broad states-manship and his splendid administration of the government. And yet, because Dem-ocrats love the people better than they do him, they would see him go to his political grave in a moment rather than take him and put him where he would have opportunities to join hands with the Senator from Ohio in inflicting the final death-blow on silver. The Democrats of this country would not know, in the event of Grover Cleveland being at the head of their ticket and of the Senator from Ohio being at the head of the other ticket, which to prefer in regard to their attitude to destroy silver. I suppose that the gratitude of these men who have been enabled to expand and con-tract the currency of the country would give the Senator from Ohio the preference over the ex-President."

Mr. Sherman replied to Mr. Morgan, and defended the finance committee from the charge made of neglect or inaction. While Mr. Sherman was still speaking the morn-ing expired and Mr. Morgan's amendment went over without action. STEWART COMES TO THE FRONT.

Mr. Stewart promptly rose, and, remarking that he would give Senators the opportunity of having a test vote on the question, moved to take up the bill introduced by him and reported adversely from the finance committee, to provide for the free soinage of gold and silver and for other purposes. The yeas and nays were called for by Mr. Morgan. The vote was thereupon taken and the vote was announced. Year 25: nays 20 as follows:

Dawes, Higgins, Vilas, White, Morrill. Palmer, Perkins, Mr. Hill was not in the chamber when the vote was taken, and no pair was announced for him. The bill was taken up. The debate was opened by Mr. Stewart, who was followed by Mr. Teller. The latter contradicted most positively a statement quoted by Mr. Sherman to the effect that, it silver went up to $1.29 per ounce, the product of silver in this country would be quintupled. Such a statement, he said, was made in the grossest ignorance or in the most malicious mischief. There was no possible excuse for such a statement, and yet the Senator from Ohio had given to it the sanction of bis anthority. The United States delegates to the international bimetallic conference would be met with that s'atement at the first meeting of the conference. What the silver men complained of was that the action of 1873, in the demonetization of silver, had appreciated gold at least 40 per cent. It had reduced the price of agricultural productions and the value of farms, houses and lands, and it had reduced the wages of the people of the country. The question, he said, was big enough for discussion, and he hoped that Senators on the opposite side of the question would find time to give to the American people some arguments on the

No Senator took the floor to continue the debate when Mr. Teiler concluded. During the first part of his speech Mr. Hill came into the chamber and took his seat, where he was engaged for some time in conversation with Mr. Stewart. He did not seem at all interested in the speech and left before it ended. The full text of Mr. Stewart's bill is as follows:

That from and a fter the date and passage of this act the unit of value in the United States shall be the dollar and the same may be coined of 412 grains of standard silver, or of 25.8 grains of standard gold; and the said coins shall be legal tender for all debts, public and private. That hereafter any owner of silver or gold bul-lion may deposit the same at any mint of the United States, to be formed into standard dollars for his benefit and without charge; but it shall be lawful to refuse any deposit of less value than $100, or any bullion so base as to be unsuitable for operation of the mint.

That the certificates provided for in the second section of this act shall be of denominations of not less than $1 or more than $10,000. and such certificates shall be redeemable in coin of standard value. That the certificates provided for in this act, and all silver and gold certificates already issued, shall be receivable for all taxes and dues to the United States of every description, and shall be legal tender for the payment of all debts, public and private. silver committee for a national convention of "all who earnestly favor the immediate restoration of free bimetallic coinage in the the United States," about one hundred delegates assembled at noon to-day in Concordia Hall, and were called to order by Gen. A. J. Warner, chairman of the national committee. In taking the chair, Gen. Warner stated the object sought to be obtained by calling together the silver men of the country. Judge Isaac B. Morris, of Indiana, was elected temporary chairman of the convention, Judge Morris spoke at some length upon the general subject of silver. The only proper question for the United States to agree to consider in an international conference, the speaker thought, was the question of a world's legal ratio. Committees were then appointed. After a recess Gen. A. J. Warner, of Ohio, was elected permanent chairman. Addresses were made ex-Representatives McGinnis, of Montana; Bryan, of Nebraska, and Bartine, of Nevada, and Senator Stewart, The latter began by saying that about two hours before the Senate, by a majority of eight, had agreed to take up and discuss a plain, simple bill providing for the free and unlimited coinage of silver. [Cheers.] "And," continued the Senator, "We will press it to a vote. In the fight to-day we lost some of our soldiers, some of them de-serted, but we will see who are our friends and who are our enemies, and if we can we will send it to the President, and we will compel him to signify to the people of the country whether he is in sympathy with the Gold Trust or whether he is willing to sign a bill for the emancipation of the whole American people." The Sena-tor opposed the proposed international monetary conference.

WILL NOT CLOSE ON SUNDAY,

Only the Government Exhibit at the World's Fair Will Be Barred to Visitors. WASHINGTON, May 26 .- The features of the day's proceedings in the House were the action on the world's fair closing proposition and an attack on John I. Davenport, of New York, both in connection with the sundry civil appropriation bill. The multitude of amendments presented to the bill confused the Chair and the clerks, and for a time the House was in a parliamentary tangle. Most of the amendments were directed to the Sunday closing of the world's fair, and some of them were of a humorous character. The tangle was unraveled by Mr. Dockery, who secured the adoption of an amendment providing simply for the closing of the government exhibit on Sunday, which thus leaves the larger question to be decided by the management. The action of John I. Davenport, whose name always gives rise to contention between New York Republicans and Democrats, came up for discussion late in the day and the methods pursued by him in New York elections were denounced by Messrs. Cummings, Warner and Fitch and defended by Mr. Payne. On motion of Mr. Martin, of Indiana, an appropriation of $5,000 was made for commissary quarters at the Marion Soldiers' Home.

The appropriation for carrying out the Chinese exclusion act was increased to $60,000 on motion of Mr. Holman. Mr. Cheatham, of North Carolina, the colored member who poured oil on the troubled waters yesterday in the House, asked consent for consideration of a bill appropriating $100,000 for the compilation of statistics showing the progress of the colored race from Jan. 1, 1883, to Jan. 1, 1893, but Mr. Kilgore, of Texas, objected.

Senator Peffer Introduces a Bill to Establish a Bureau of Loans. WASHINGTON, May 26 .- Senator Peffer today introduced a bill to "increase the curreney and provide for its circulation; to reduce the rates of interest and to establish a bureau of loans;" and it was laid on the table for the present, Mr. Peffer expressing his intention to address the Senate on the subject. It provides for a bureau of loans within the Treasury Department, to be conducted by three commissioners, with salaries of $5,000 each. This bureau is to establish agencies, one of which is to be at the capital of every State and Territory. The business of these local agencies is to be to lend money to the people, just as such business is now done by "responsible and wellregulated real-estate and loan's geneies. The loans are for not less than one year nor for longer than (the number of years is left blank). No loan is to be for less than $100 or more than $2,500, to or for any one person or family; and; no loan is to be granted unless it be to procure or to save's home. The funds required to carry out the act are to be provided by the issue of treasury notes, equal in amount to a dollar and a half to every dollar's worth of gold and silver coin and bullion belonging to the United States. The bill prohibits banks or corporations from demanding or receiving more than 5 per cent. interest, or 4 per cent. where the loan extends over a Beat Don Alonzo by a Neck for the Great American Stakes, Worth $17,000.

The Brooklyn Cup Easily Taked by Longstreet -Dead Heat Between Allan Bane and Banquet-Other Turf Events.

GRAVESEND, L. I., May 26 .- The great American stakes, worth $17,000 to the winner, $2,000 to the second horse and $1,000 to the third horse, was run off this afternoon before a large crowd. The track was fast and the weather fair. The feature of the race was the delay at the post, an hour and a quarter being wasted before starter Rowe succeeded in getting them off well bunched. The crack Morris filly, Minnehaba, threw her jockey, Inttlefield, at the post and, stepping on his face, cut him quite seriously. Mike Bergen was substituted for Littlefield, but the filly was prominent in every false break and finished last, Garrison landing Sir Walter winner in clever style by a neck from Don Alonzo. The Wertern colt, Allen Bane, made all the running in the second race, but was caught on the post by Banquet in a dead heat. Both owners decided to divide the purse, and bets were paid accordingly. Judge Morrow was withdrawn from the Brooklyn onp, leaving Longford, who had not been out of the stable for a month, to run for second money. It was simply an exercise gallop for Longstreet. The executive committee suspended jookey Bender indefinite-ly for the questionable riding of Leona-well, a contestant in the second race. Sum-

First Race-Three-quarters of a mile. Believue first, Trinity second, Onward third. Time, 1:14. Second Race-One and one-half mile. Dead heat between Allen Bane and Banquet; Lonawell third. Purse divided. Time, 2:8512.

Fourth Race—The Great American stakes; five furlongs. Sir Walter, 118 (Garrison), 6 to 1, won in a drive by a neck; Don Alonzo, 118 (Doggett), 7 to 2, second by two lengths, whipping; Ajax, 118 (Bergen), 16 to 5, third by half a length. Time, 1:044. Gayosa Wins $1,225. Special to the Indianapolis Journal.

St. Louis, Mo., May 26 .- The feature of the card to-day at the St. Louis Jockey Club track was the Merchants' and Manufacturers' stakes, at one and an eighth mile, Eight horses faced starter Caldwell, all of which were well played. Gayosa, a threeyear-old colt by imported Great Tom, dam Buttress, belonging to the Gambrinus stable, proved an easy winner. He laid behind his field until the stretch was reached, when he shot to the front and cantered under the wire three lengths in front of Content. The value of the stake to the winner was $1,225. The sensation of the day hap-pened in the first race, when jockey Har-mon pulled Tim Murphy, the favorite, to allow Ruben Payne, a ten-to-one shot, to win. The boy and horse were ruled off. An investigation failed to directly connect the trainer. Cy Mulkey, with the deal, but the judges ordered him to leave the grounds. Summaries:

First Race-Six furlongs. Reuben Payne first, The Peer second, Tim Murphy third. Second Race-Four furlongs. Montana Belle first, Princess Lorraine second, Silverine third. Time, :50. Third Race-Merchants' and Manufacturers' stake; one and one-eighth mile. Gay-osa first. Content second, Patrick third, Fourth Race-Six and one-half furlongs. Sullivan first, Irene H. second, Kismet Fifth Race-Six and one-half furlongs.

CINCINNATI, May 26 .- The track at Latonia was muddy and slow. The betters were badly taken in by the first two races, Belie Carter and The Hero, on both of which horses the odds were 6 to 1, winning. Palmetto, a well-tipped colt, and the strong favorite in the second race, did not even show. The third, fourth and fifth races were won by the favorites, but in the last race the greatest part of the money was about evenly divided between Orville. Hardee and One Dime. The final finish was the best of the day, Orville coming under the whip in the last sixteenth, and won after a fight by a head. Summaries: First Race-Three-fourths of a mile.
